

COACHES NAME:

6TH MAN/STAR NOMINEE:

NOTE: Only one nominee. Must be from your team.

BEST DEFENSIVE PLAYER NOMINEES:

NOTE: At least one nominee from your team.

ACE AWARD NOMINEES:

NOTE: At least one nominee from your team.

MVP NOMINEES:

NOTE: At least one nominee from your team.

6th Man or 6th Star

(Staff & Coaches Nominate – Players and Coaches Vote)

Coaching staff are allowed to nominate one 6th Man or 6th Star and it must be from their team.

Criteria

Journeyman teaches the importance of teamwork and effort regardless of how great your skills are. Everyone brings something to the team or they bring it down. A 6th Man or 6th Star is a very consistent and reliable player. There may only be 5 players on the court at any given time, but the 6th Man or 6th Star is hard working, fundamentally sound and productive. They never give less than they are capable of and constantly set the tone for effort that the rest of the team should follow.

Best Defensive Player

(Staff & Coaches Nominate – Players and Coaches Vote)(Revised 2/2/26)

Coaching staff are allowed to nominate 2 Best Defensive Players. A minimum of one must come from their assigned team. Both can be selected from their team, or they can choose another from their assigned division. They must meet the criteria below. A player only requires one nomination to be listed on the ballot. Program staff may add additional names if the consensus is that someone is being slighted the opportunity to become a Best Defensive Player award recipient.

NOTE: Effective 2/2/26 the top 5 in defensive votes will be listed as All-Defensive 1st Team in their bio. The individual with the most votes will win the award.

Criteria

These players are chosen by consensus of the coaches and players who have observed them on the court and in practice. Solid footwork, constant effort, court awareness and a constant concern for point retention is the key to this award. This player's ability to wear down his or her opponent forcing them to make poor decisions make them a great defensive player.

ACE Award (formerly CEC/KL)

(Staff & Coaches Nominate – Players and Coaches Vote) (Revised 2/1/26)

Coaching staff are allowed to nominate ACE recipients. A minimum of one must come from their assigned team. Both can be selected from their team, or they can choose another from their assigned division. They must meet the criteria below. A player only requires one nomination to be listed on the ballot. Program staff may add additional names if the consensus is that someone is being slighted the opportunity to become an ACE award recipient.

Criteria

This valued athlete is always invested in their team while inspiring teammates to work together. Furthermore, they always believe their team has a chance. They are a direct representation of great Attitude, solid Character and top-notch Effort. Players who receive this award are great overall players, but receive the award for their investment in hustle, dedication to the meaning of Journeyman and teamwork. Their effort is never in question and commitment to their team is always superior.

Most Valuable Player Award

(Staff & Coaches Nominate – Players and Coaches Vote)(re-write 2/1/26)

Coaching staff are allowed to nominate 2 MVP's. A minimum of one must come from their assigned team. Both can be selected from their team, or they can choose another from their assigned division. They must meet the criteria below. A player only requires one nomination to be listed on the ballot. Program staff may add additional names if the consensus is that someone is being slighted the opportunity to become an MVP.

Criteria

This coveted divisional award is given to the player or players who make a great impact on their team's success. Usually awarded for outstanding skills performance, it can be awarded for other reasons as well. To receive the MVP Award, you must bring all you can to your performance and inspire others to win. You must be pursuant in your goals and encourage your teammates to follow you.